Kindness

The meaning of kindness

The meaning of kindness for me is lending a hand or just being a good person or good deeds. I feel there is a purpose or a reason for a person to be kind. But, the most kind people do good things without being told, or having a purpose to be kind to one another. Shouldn't it be a given that people are suppose to be kind to each other? But sadly that's not always the case. Everyone is a kind person. It's just that they are labeled a kind person if they act upon it. It's like being the President of the United States. They are suppose to be a good leader. But, they will only be one if they do something about it. Being a good person or being kind is harder to do then to be mean, but, is it impossible or way too hard to do? Absolutely not.

What does kindness mean?

Kindness means one thing, but yet it still has so many other different meanings. Kindness means helping others out. There are so many different ways that you can help someone out. If you see someone getting bullied, don't let it continue, stop it, protect that person that is getting bullied. If you see a person struggling, help them out, don't stand there laughing at them. Another way to be kindness is seeing the good in others. Don't judge someone if you don't know the real them. Everybody has good in them. Even if they seem like they aren't that good of a person, they are, even if it is hard for you to find the good, you will.

Kindness makes you the most beautiful person in the world no matter what you look like

Treat everyone with Kindness and Respect, even those who are rude to you, not because they are nice, but because you are.

NO ACT OF KINDNESS NO MATTER HOW SMALL IS EVER WASTED

Guard well within yourself that treasure, kindness. Know how to give without hesitation. How to lose without regret. How to acquire without meanness
~George Sand

Kindness, one of the greatest gifts you can bestow upon another. If someone is in need, lend them a helping hand. Do not wait for a thank you. True kindness lies within the act of giving without the expectation of something in return. -N/A
